A decree of divorce has been granted by Judge Galloway in the case of Joseph Fliegel vs. Josephine Fliegel. The defendant is awarded custody of the two minor children, but the plaintiff is to be permitted to visit them or to receive visits from them.

Alice Martin has asked for an order of the court permitting the two minor children of herself and Jesse Martin to visit her at her home in Mill City at such time as the children may desire to do so. Judge Galloway has cited the defendant to appear and show cause why such order should not be issued.

The petition of Louis Webert, guardian of the estate of Jacob G. Miller, incompetent, that he be permitted to use $500 from the estate for use in harvesting a crop of hops, has been granted on condition that C. F. Bremer, rector of the property, shall give a chattel mortgage to the guardian on said hops.

The county court has approved the bond of Anna C. Bond, Charles E. Geelan and Dan E. Powers, executors of the will of the late Patrick Geelan, who had property to the amount of $2000.

The will of Joseph A. Dodge, deceased, was admitted to probate in the county court this morning. The value of the estate is $2500. M. B. Kromling and Agnes Estella Kromling are named as executors, and August Will, John Scholl and M. C. Crittenden as appraisers.

The will of George W. Stephenson was filed for probate in the county court this morning. The property has a probable value of $5000. It is asked that Alice R. Stephenson be named as executrix and that John Murray, Joe Ryan and Earl Gibbons be appointed appraisers.

J. H. Farrar has been appointed administrator of the estate of Lena Schultz. August Huestein, Paul Miller and Estella Taylor have been appointed appraisers.

Salem Commercial Club Writes of Conditions

Under date of August 31st, the following letter has been addressed to the Public Service Commission by the Commercial Club relative to the car shortage in this section:

"Public Service Commission, Salem, Oregon.
"Gentlemen: The Salem Commercial Club notes with satisfaction the efforts on the part of your honorable body to relieve the present shortage of cars in this section, and desires to assure you that this organization stands ready to lend you its active support in any way possible to bring about a speedy solution of the difficulty.

"The condition in Salem is rapidly diverting one. At the time of some bitter feuds in Kentucky a newspaper editor desired a special story, and assigned a new, young reporter to the job. He, clever and debonair, promptly got himself in a terrible mess by falling in love with one girl who was prominent on one side of the feud, and getting himself fallen in love with by another girl who was on the opposite side.

"The result, though disastrous to him, was provocative of a series of highly amusing but dangerous situations, which were finally cleared up by the intervention of the militia.
"John Hines, an extremely clever comedian who has made a great reputation for himself in World Film features, has a part in which he fairly reveals as the cub. There are other highly finished players in the cast.
"The Cub" will be presented at the Bligh Theatre, Today, Tomorrow and Saturday; there will also be a good comedy bill, don't fail to see the Monkey Pictures, a laugh from start to finish.

"The failure to provide cars promises also to cause considerable loss through inability to fulfill contracts, etc., and the total loss to the community will be very serious indeed unless some immediate action is taken by the railroad company.

"No doubt your body understands this situation even more thoroughly than we do, but we cannot refrain from suggesting that so general a shortage as now obtains throughout this section should have been foreseen by the Southern Pacific Company. In our opinion the seriousness of the situation cannot be too strongly urged upon the railroad company, and we believe that any steps you may take to remedy this neglect will receive the loyal support of the Salem Commercial Club as a body and the hearty appreciation of every business man in Salem.
"Yours respectfully,
"SALEM COM. COMM. CLUB.

TOMORROW and SATURDAY Fairbanks Declares Huerta Should Have Been Recognized

DUSTIN FARNUM

And the party of players making the latest Pallas-Paramount photoplay "Davy Crockett" were caught by an unexpected snow storm in the mountains and kept from all outside communication for three weeks. They were rescued by a relief party and suffered no serious bad effects from the experience. This picture comes to the Ye Liberty Theatre tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

General R. H. Pratt, known as the father of the Indian industrial schools of the country is on an inspection tour of the west and was in Salem a short time yesterday. He is known as the founder of the Carlisle, Pa., Indian school. Although 80 years of age, he is still active in the Indian service.

Be sure to get fresh Spices when you can. Phone 67 for prompt service. Wm. Gahlsdorf

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—Declaring for a protective tariff that would insure against a "commercial invasion which would paralyze American industry and blight our happiness," and condemning the "vacillating" policy of the Wilson administration as regards Mexico, Charles W. Fairbanks this afternoon accepted the nomination as the candidate for the republican party for vice-president.

Fairbanks came out with a flatfooted statement that President Wilson should have recognized General Huerta as president of Mexico.

"It was our manifest duty to have recognized Huerta as the president, either de facto or de jure," said Fairbanks.

The notification ceremonies were held on the lawn of the Fairbanks home, beginning at 3:30 p. m. Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, of Illinois, delivered the notification speech. W. R. Wilcox, republican national chairman; A. T. Hirt, western campaign manager; and Frank H. Hitecheck were present.

Fairbanks' tariff statement occupied nearly half of his brief address.

Regarding the claims of the democrats that President Wilson has kept the country at peace, he said the claim was too broad, for "there has been real war in Mexico, due to our own aggression."

The notification today was a barbecue of old fashioned flavor. The day was a holiday in Indianapolis, and there were parades by marching clubs and other events. Senator Sherman of Illinois, made the principal address. The ceremonies took place on the lawn of Mr. Fairbanks' residence, which is one of the show places of Indianapolis. Mr. Fairbanks will begin a campaign tour of the country.

B The Salem Bowling Alleys will be opened on or about Sept 1, under management of M. L. Patton. Will cater to highclass trade. One afternoon will be reserved each week for ladies and escorts. B
